Raindrop Technique®

“ Raindrop Technique®” is a sequence of applying Young Living Therapeutic Grade Essential oils to the feet and spine. Stimulating the body natural healing ability at the cellular level through the oils, boosting the immune system, bringing the body into structural/electrical balance. Feel the invigorating yet relaxing power of the oils, healing the body.

Raindrop is a combination of various aspects of conventional massage, adaptations of Oriental acupressure and reflexology (Vita Flex), Native American healing techniques (inspired by Young's work with a Lakota elder), and Aromatic Sciences using the potent line of Young Living therapeutic grade essential oils.

This modality can be used on yourself, family or friends that can enhance your health. No Better time than now when Flu season is just upon us!

$50.00 per session
